Edwin: Hey. I'm guessing you already heard...a few days ago I was attacked by a bunch of...well, the best way I can describe them is "sahuagins".
When was this?
Edwin: Three days ago, at about nine o'clock at night. I was there for just a f ew minutes
before they attacked me.
Why were you at the beach?
Edwin: I was just relaxing. It's been a busy week.
any idea why the attacked you?
Edwin: I guess they were hungry, or I was on their territory or something
Were you hurt?
Edwin: It was a pretty close call but I'm fine now. They didn't touch me.
That must have been scary
Edwin: It was a pretty scary experience. I thought they were going to tear me a part.
I bet you have nightmares
Edwin: I'm not sure what you mean by that.
You know, these things sound dangerous
Edwin: You're right. Somebody could get seriously hurt.
we should probably do something Edwin: Something definitely needs to be done. Of course, the're's not a heck of a lot we can do when when nobody believes us
Then we have to gather evidence.
Edwin: I haven't got any proof.
Could there be foot prints?
Edwin: I guess there could still be footprints there. But we'll have to go back to check and it isn't safe.
we have to go back!
Edwin: You want to go back there? No way, it's way too dangerous!
Was anyone else there?
Edwin: I was the only one there. It IS November after all. Not a lot of people visiting the beach
should we talk to the cops?
Edwin: What do you expect the police to do? They won't believe us, and there ar e probably dozens of those things in the lake
what about the army?
Edwin: Get real, there's no way we could get the military to help
Should we form a mob?
Edwin: You know what? I know what I have to do. I'm going to call my redneck c ousin in. He's just crazy enough to help out!
Thanks for hearing me out. I gotta go now. See ya!

You are clearly full of $#!+
Edwin: Geez, you could try being a bit more supportive.
When was this?
Edwin: Three days ago, at about nine o'clock at night. I was there for just a few minutes before they attacked me.
Where?
Edwin: Sounds like you don't believe me. Wonderful.
Where did this happen?
Edwin: At Kal Beach, at the end of the dock
Why were you at the beach?
Edwin: I was just relaxing. It's been a busy week.
What did these things look like?
Edwin: Look, I don't know if that's what they were really called. I looked the description up online and this is what I found.
what did they look like?
Edwin: They looked like fish men. They were ugly, green scaly and had fins everywhere. They were making that incessant hissing noise
How did you escape?
Edwin: I ran like hell! I think they tried to catch me, but...I don't know, maybe they just aren't very fast on land and it was like, ten degrees below zero so that might have slowed them down
Yeah dude you are obviously telling tall tales
Edwin: What are you talking about? I don't quite know what you mean.
you are a liar
Edwin: I'm not making this up! This all really happened. It was pretty scary. Maybe somebody was trying to pull a prank on you
Edwin: Sounds like you don't believe me. Wonderful.
Or maybe you are just nuts
Edwin: Well that's just great. You hear what I have to say and just assume I've gone bonkers.
are you on drugs?
Edwin: Is that supposed to be funny?
Were you drunk?
Edwin: I don't even drink.
You should really see a counsellor
Edwin: I'm telling you I'm not crazy! I'm not crazy! I'm not! I'M NOT! WHY WON'T YOU SHUT UP? STOP ASKING ME THAT!
GRRRGHHHHRRRGHGGGGHHHH AHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH-- *thunk*
